Why did it always have to be like this? she asked herself. All she wanted was to feel comfortable and secure, and to watch her children grow up to become decent, respectable, responsible adults who would weave themselves into the reassuring cocoon of familiarity around her-as much for their own future well-being as for hers. That much was hers to expect as her due because she had made sacrifices to earn it. It threatened nobody. So why should other people's squabbles which were not of her making now threaten her with sweeping it all away?.As though it were the most natural thing to do, the girl picked up Micky's fresh can of Budweiser and,.experiencing the fullness of life, which might have filled those vacant rooms with good memories to.Chapter 19.Even as Noah dropped the ruined cake, the front passenger's-side window shattered under the impact.thought and analysis..hundred, until she either fell asleep or broke down sobbing and then fell asleep..
